Khrushchev in Peace Talk to India Lawman

By WATSON SIMS

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, welcomed to India by perhaps 250,000 persons, told Parliament today all international disputes should be settled on the principle of peaceful coexistence.

"The way out of all disputes should be sought through negotiations and not through pressure and dictation," he said in the first major speech of his four-day tour of Asia.

Khrushchev attracted crowds small by comparison with the tumultuous throngs that greeted President Eisenhower here on the American leader's goodwill tour 10 months ago.

His call for peaceful settlement of world issues reiterated a position he had outlined at intervals since returning from his visit to the United States last September.

Addressing a joint session of Parliament he used "panch shila," a common Indian term for the coexistence treaty between India and Red China, interchangeably for coexistence.

He seemed to be making a strong plea for a negotiated settlement in the bitter dispute between India and Red China over 50,000 square miles of their border territory.

Since the border dispute led to the death of a dozen Indian soldiers last year, the term "panch shila" has suffered a tremendous loss of popularity in this country.

Khrushchev, wearing a light blue suit, received a huge ovation from standing members as he passed down the aisle, clasping his hands before his face in the traditional Indian greeting.

Vice President Sarvapati Radhakrishnan introduced Khrushchev as "a courageous fighter for peace."

Khrushchev seemed either unaware or undisturbed by the difference in the welcome given to him and to President Eisenhower.

More than a million turned out—some sources said 2½ million—to welcome the U. S. President.

Khrushchev told India's lawmakers "the principles of panch (Continued on Page Six)

Price Fixing Questioned in Oil Hearing

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—How much business can an oil firm and its affiliates discuss without violating federal antitrust laws?

U. S. District Judge Royce H. Savage yesterday posed that question after the government rested its case against 20 major oil firms charged with conspiring to fix prices.

A recess was called in the criminal trial until Friday when about 80 attorneys will argue motions for acquittal of the companies.

Some defendants include parent or holding companies, their wholly owned affiliates plus those in which such parent firms own controlling stock.

"Sinclair Crude and Sinclair Refining are wholly-owned subsidiaries of the parent company, as I understand it," Savage said.

"The question of whether those companies would be in violation of the Anti-Trust Act if they reach agreement on prices is what I have in mind."

A ruling on the motions favoring defendants would end the case. If Savage denies the motions, the defendants will present their side of the case.

The defendant firms are on trial on charges of conspiring in 1956 and January, 1957 to fix crude oil and gasoline prices during the Suez Canal crisis when oil shipments from the Middle East to Europe were stopped.

Wreck Here Fatal to 5th Victim

HOPE, Ark. (AP)—A fifth person has died from injuries suffered in a fiery two-car crash near here Saturday.

Mrs. Joan Belvin, 25, died last night in a hospital here. Her husband, singer Jesse Belvin, Charles Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Max Gene Nohl of Milwaukee were the other victims.

The Belvins and Ford were members of a Negro entertainment troupe headed for a Dallas engagement. Another member of the troupe, Kirk Davis, was critically injured.

FBI Probing Bomb Attack at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Police and the FBI today pushed a silence-cloaked investigation of a bomb attack on the home of a Negro girl who attends integrated Central High School.

Detective Capt. A. M. Tyniec said that additional persons were being questioned in the Tuesday night blast.

He would not elaborate. "Just saw the investigation is continuing," he told a newsman.

Earlier Police Chief Gene Smith announced the FBI had assigned an explosives expert to the case.

The blast caused minor damage to the Cartleyou Walls home. No one was injured. Carlotta Walls, 16, is one of eight negroes attending Central and integrated Hall High School. Carlotta, her mother and two younger sisters were asleep on the opposite side of the house from the blast site.

The bomb attack was the first outbreak of integration violence here since three explosions last Sept. 17. Of five men arrested in those blasts, three were convicted, one pleaded guilty and the fifth has not been tried.

Carlotta and the other seven Negroes attended school as usual yesterday. Carlotta confided to friends that she was nervous, but there was no indication she plans to seek a transfer from Central.

Negroes broke the race barrier at Central in 1957 after President Eisenhower sent federal troops here to protect them. Little Rock high schools were closed against integration during the 1958-59 school year.

Negroes were admitted to one- and two-year schools last fall when the school board reopened them under a plan of token integration.

R. J. Poppington of Washington, the FBI explosive man, and a squad of police sifted blast fragments.

Smith said several persons were questioned but no arrests were made. He gave no indication whether those questioned were suspects or witnesses.

Personnel Change at Hope Station

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Appointment of a new research worker at the University of Arkansas Agriculture Branch Station in Hope was announced today.

Gerald R. Brown has been assigned to the Hope station, where he replaces J. L. Bowden who transferred to the Strawberry Substation last summer.

Mr. Brown received his B.S.A. from the U of A last June and has begun work toward his M.S. degree in plant pathology. He served as a student assistant in plant pathology for several years.

Unit Control of Crops Discussed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility of unit controls, rather than acreage controls, on crops were among farm topics discussed yesterday by Arkansas congressmen and a delegation from the Arkansas Farmers Union.

Forty farmers made the trip here by bus for the meeting, which has become an annual affair.

The group met first with Sens. J. W. Fulbright and John L. McClellan in a Senate conference room and then they called on Arkansas House members.

Members of the executive committee present were: Mr. Guern R. Caldwell, James Barton, Mrs. Inez Talarferro and Cliff Bridgers. Mrs. Sarah Fowler, Red Cross Field Representative, attended the meeting as a consultant.

Plans are underway to have a called meeting of all Red Cross members in Hempstead in March. There will be no campaign in March, because contributors to the fall United Fund Drive renewed their Red Cross membership through the combined appeal.

Salaries of Teachers in State 'Lousy'

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An average salary of 3,245 is budgeted for Arkansas teachers this year. That figure, reported yesterday by the State Education Department, represents an increase of $86 over 1958-59.

But according to Forrest Rozzell, executive director of the Arkansas Education Assn., it's "lousy." He said the average teachers' salary nationally was 5,025 last year and the average increase was $228.

Rozzell said Arkansas has increased state and local taxes and spends a higher percentage of income on education than other states but still can't pay enough. He added, "We don't have enough wealth to pay decent teachers' salaries in Arkansas."

The Education Department report showed a total of 48,288,111 to be paid to teachers this year. That compares with $46,620,089 last year.

Independence to Vote on Tax Levy

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Independence County voters will decide on March 15 whether to levy a five-mill tax increase to help finance a 1-1/2 million dollar industrial bond issue.

The election date was set yesterday.

At stake is the location here of a new plant for the Seiberling Rubber Co. Seiberling officials have expressed their intention of installing the plant if the bond issue is approved.

The matter of getting the plant for Batesville led Gov. Orval E. Faubus to call a special legislative session last month. The Legislature passed laws to permit issuance of revenue bonds to build and equip industrial plants.

In a three-day session, the Legislature also passed measures enabling cities and counties to join in promoting industrialization and allowing the state to purchase up to two million dollars worth of the new-type industrial bonds.

A routine court test of the validity of the new industrial bond law, Act 9, is expected to be filed in chancery court here soon.

PSC Studies Telephone Petition

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Public Service Commission has taken under advisement a petition from 23 Hot Spring County residents who want telephone service from the Southwest Bell Telephone Co.'s Malvern exchange.

Eight witnesses testified in favor of the petition at a hearing before the PSC yesterday.

Freeman Crow of Antioch said the area, about eight miles south of Malvern, has no telephone service now. It is in territory assigned to the Central Arkansas Telephone Co.-laterally line.

Witnesses for the co-operative, which is protesting the petition, said the public utility was ready and able to provide service in the area if anyone asks for it.

A Bell spokesman said his company was neutral in the matter.

In another case, the PSC received a request from the Walnut Hill Telephone Co. for permission to obtain $345,000 in additional capital to finance expansion of its service in southwest Arkansas.

The firm said it wants to buy the Foreman Telephone Co., at a cost of $160,000 and to spend $185,000 for expansion and for conversion of the Lewisville exchange to dial.

Ike Offers New Test Ban Plan, Declares Nikita's Claim Crazy

Superiority Statement Irks the President

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today labeled as crazy a specific contention by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev that communism is superior to free world capitalism.

At a news conference, Eisenhower was asked for comment on a statement, attributed to Khrushchev, that Russia's flag is flying on the moon and this proves that communism is better than capitalism.

Eisenhower replied he thinks it's a crazy statement.

The President said he concedes that Russia has to its credit some spectacular achievements in space exploration. But the American people, Eisenhower went on, should not get hysterical about such achievements.

The President added that we should not let this sort of accomplishment by Russia dismay us. Eisenhower dealt with these other topics:

NUCLEAR — He called for a virtual ban on all nuclear weapons testing—linked to foolproof inspection safeguards.

In disclosing proposals to be outlined later in the day at the Geneva conference on nuclear test bans, Eisenhower excepted only such underground tests as cannot be detected at the present time.

Eisenhower said he hopes the American plan will end the months-long deadlock at Geneva.

DEFENSE — Eisenhower said he deplores public argument among military experts regarding the adequacy and specific requirements of the nation's defense.

He made that statement when told that experts in the Defense Department and members of Congress have been in intense controversy regarding the relative missile strength of the United States and Russia.

$16,905 Paving Assessment Rapped

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Contractor S. W. Gaylord appeared before the City Council Wednesday to protest a street paving assessment of $16,905.30. In September he obtained a $217,919 contract to handle the project.

The contractor said the paving would not increase the value of his property by the assessed amount. He owns 1,110 feet facing the project.

No decision was announced by the City Council.

Donation to Colleges

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The International Harvester Foundation has donated $1,500 to the Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges.

Hugh Cort, executive director of the foundation, said the sum was twice what Harvester had given in previous contributions.

The foundation aids Arkansas' seven non-state-supported colleges and universities.

President Is Impressed at Missile Base

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, pictured as much impressed by his close-up look at missile developments, may have more to say on the controversial matter today.

The President was almost certain to be asked at a morning news conference for a fresh appraisal of where the nation stands in this field, based on his inspection tour Wednesday of the big missile test center at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The related topic of disarmament also was a likely subject for discussion. Top negotiators for the Western powers now are meeting here to draw up the proposals to be made to the Soviet bloc next month at Geneva.

At the end of his 3 1/2-hour visit to Cape Canaveral, Eisenhower told newsmen "from my viewpoint it was a very worthwhile trip, and I hope it has been for you fellows."

He commented also that "certainly the personnel show every evidence of a high degree of competence."

But despite advance speculation that he might, Eisenhower did not use the occasion to reassure the American people regarding the missile race with the Soviet Union — a subject of controversy in Congress.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, later reported that Eisenhower was much impressed with what he saw and heard at the 15,000-acre test center. Hagerty said he couldn't elaborate because so much of the information given to the President was in the secret category.

One of the missiles Eisenhower inspected at close range, a solid-fueled Polaris, later was fired on what the Department of Defense (Continued on Page Six)

Aims Proposal at Breaking the Deadlock

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower announced today a new four-point U.S. plan for international restrictions on nuclear tests. Aimed to break the deadlock with Russia, it would exempt low power underground tests—explosion from the proposed ban.

Eisenhower told a news conference the plan was being introduced immediately at Geneva where the United States, Russia and Britain have been negotiating a test prohibition for more than 15 months.

In a statement, Eisenhower said the new proposal "would and forthwith, under assured controls" the following types of explosion:

1. All nuclear weapons tests in the atmosphere.

2. All nuclear weapons tests in the ocean.

3. All such tests "in those regions in space where effective controls can now be agreed to."

4. All tests "beneath the surface of the earth which can be monitored."

Just Got Tired of Playing Solitaire

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—"Among other things, they got tired of playing single solitaire." So William Holt and Laura Bonner were married Wednesday in an old folks' home where romance blossomed over the card tables.

He's 96. She's 85. Mrs. Bonner's first marriage ended in divorce many years ago. Her second husband died in 1953.

Holt's first wife died about 30 years ago.

Kather Ne Lowe, who runs the home for the Volunteers of America, provided the "single solitaire" explanation.

The newlyweds, who'll continue to live at the home, put it differently. They just said they were lonely and fell in love.

A Mystery Satellite Is Spotted

By C. YATES MC DANIEL WASHINGTON (AP)—A dark satellite that the Pentagon said may be of Soviet origin tumbled through space today in an orbit of mystery.

Its path over the poles was one that would be desirable for any type of "seeing eye" space spy. Moscow was saying nothing about it.

Here's all that's known about the mystery object, according to the Defense Department:

It appears to be in a near polar orbit. It is dark and is probably less than 19 feet long. It is silent, as far as U. S. monitors are concerned.

But American space scientists have not ruled out the possibility that the satellite could be sending messages if triggered by a remote receiving station in the Soviet Union. However, these scientists have learned from experience that it is difficult to receive signals from a space vehicle tumbling in orbit, as this one appears to be doing.

At Jodrell Bank in England, scientists at the British radio telescope said they knew of no satellite sent aloft by the Soviets recently and that they have no information on any new satellite around the poles.

Navy tracking stations first spotted the object about three weeks ago, but the Defense Department said nothing about it.

There was no official comment until after word was publicized Wednesday that the Pentagon was buzzing with "what is it?" speculation.

American scientists quickly eliminated the possibility that the space traveler was one of the known American or Soviet satellites which had been launched in a generally east-west orbit.

Six U.S. Discoverer satellites have been fired into polar orbits. The only one of them still circling is Discoverer VIII, launched last Nov. 20 from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

Navy trackers who keep a continuous watch on all space objects said they knew the whereabouts of the Discoverer rocket casings—and that this object was not one of them.

The only indication of the mystery satellite's size came in the Pentagon's comment that the object is slightly smaller than the Discoverer carrier rockets. These carrier rockets are 19.2 feet long and 5 feet in diameter, weighing 1,400 pounds at burn-out. Their ejectable capsules weigh 300 pounds.

The Navy's "Spasur" (Space Surveillance) fence which first picked up the mystery satellite extends across the southern part of the United States. Ships in the Atlantic and Pacific also carry on tracking operations. The Pentagon says this assures "that passive or silent satellites will not be able to orbit unnoticed above the United States."

Dirksen Hints of Probe of Secret Leaks

By JOE F. KANE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) hints the Senate may investigate reported leaks of secret intelligence information given Congress behind closed doors.

In a Senate speech Tuesday, Dirksen quoted a column by Joseph Alsop as saying "the hard, disturbing facts and figures in the testimony of the director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Allen W. Dulles, before the Space Committee can now be revealed on undoubted authority."

Dirksen, Senate Republican leader, asked: "Who is this undoubted authority? Who has made available, in whole or in part, or in paraphrase or in capsule form, any of the testimony given by the director of the CIA?"

"That becomes a very serious question when one is dealing with the whole problem of national defense and national security."

"I think it is something that merits further attention by the Senate."

Dirksen quoted an Alsop column which last week quoted Dulles as saying the United States expects the Soviet Union will have 35 intercontinental ballistic missiles on launchers by the end of June.

"The issue of the reported leaks came up in an earlier exchange between Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.), the administration's Senate spokesman on defense matters, and Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), an outspoken critic of the Eisenhower defense program."

When Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, balked Tuesday at discussing certain military matters at a public hearing by the Senate Space and Preparedness groups, Saltonstall backed him.

Saltonstall said some questions asked by Symington appeared to be based on information Saltonstall said had been leaked to newspapers.

"Symington interrupted to say 'I, too, resent that figures have been given to the newspapers.' He added he had seen four different lists of supposed relative U.S. Soviet missile strength 'and all those lists were wrong.'"

Pea Ridge Ceremony

ROGERS, Ark. (AP)—Final plans for a ceremony at which the title to the Pea Ridge Civil War battlefield will be transferred from the state to the federal government were laid here last night.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus will present a deed to officials of the U.S. Department of the Interior which plans to create the Pea Ridge National Battlefield Park.

The state bought the land for the park at a cost of about $500,000.

Lichens, a fungus which supplies both dyes and foods, can live equally well in the tropics or the arctic regions.

RAMBLER WINS COMPACT CAR ECONOMY TEST!

Ramblar American tops nearest competitor by 6.67 miles per gallon in Pure Oil Economy Trials at Daytona

Once again Ramblar proves it is America's Economy King! Under official NASCAR supervision, the Ramblar American won over all other U.S. economy cars to sweep the Compact Car Class in the Pure Oil Economy Trials held at the Daytona International Speedway Public Proving Grounds, February 1-3.

But gasoline mileage is only one measure of Ramblar economy. Ramblar owners save, too, on lowest prices, lowest upkeep, and highest resale value.

Discover Ramblar's all-around economy yourself. See your Ramblar dealer today.

and averaged better than 25 miles per hour. No car owner should expect to approach this driving the mileage achieved in this test by Ramblar or any of the other cars. However, the results prove again the superior economy that Ramblar owners enjoy.

HERE ARE THE OFFICIAL PURE OIL ECONOMY TRIAL RESULTS

RAMBLAR AMERICAN 51.281 Miles Per Gallon
FALCON 44.614 MPG—Ramblar gave 14.9% more mileage
VALIANT 41.801 MPG—Ramblar gave 22.7% more mileage
CORVAIR 39.882 MPG—Ramblar gave 28.6% more mileage
LARK 32.965 MPG—Ramblar gave 55.6% more mileage

IMPORTANT—All cars in the Pure Oil Economy Trials were driven by expert drivers and operated under ideal conditions. The winning Ramblar American Custom was equipped with optional overdrive which is not available on most other cars in the Compact Car Class.

Hope Duplicate Bridge Meets

There were 4 1/2 tables of players at the Hope Duplicate Bridge Club when it met at the Diamond on Feb. 8. Dr. Bill McCallon of Camden was the only out of town player.

Mrs. L. L. Broach and Dr. McCallon teamed up to take first place for the evening. The second place couple was Mrs. A. K. Holloway and Mrs. J. M. Duffie. In third place were Dr. Harold Brent and Mike Kelly.

Mrs. Hollis Samuels Hosts to DeAnn Lilac Garden Club

On Feb. 9 the DeAnn Lilac Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Hollis Samuels with Mrs. C. B. O'Steen as co-hostess. Pretty valentine arrangements gave seasonal atmosphere to the home.

Mrs. O'Steen, club president, called the meeting to order and she read Psalm 103 for the devotion. This was followed with prayer by Mrs. Samuel. The roll was answered by members reciting a Bible verse.

Mrs. Lida Arnold was program chairman. She gave a reading of a prayer whose author was unknown. Each member told an interesting event, either personal or national, which had occurred in 1959.

Delicious heart shaped sandwiches, nuts, cookies and mints were served to nine members during the refreshment hour.

Chapter AE of PEO Meets

Chapter AE of the PEO met with Mrs. F. M. Horton on Feb. 9 and daffodils, pussy willow and forsythia lent a spring like setting to the gathering. The opening ode was played by Mrs. Jewell Moore Jr.

Mrs. H. O. Kyrle took the devotion from Proverbs. Mrs. E. P. O'Neal presided over the business meeting and the minutes were read by Mrs. Henry Haynes. For the program Mrs. Jim McKenzie showed colored slides taken in Europe by her daughter, Janet.

There were 15 members present, and the hostess served them from the dining room using the Valentine motif in her refreshments. The table was covered with a green cloth and centered with a bouquet of spring flowers. Mrs. O'Neal and Mrs. W. Y. Foster served the Valentine tea, heart shaped salad and other tidbits.

WSCS of The First Methodist Church Meets

The monthly meeting of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church was held Feb. 8 in the Sanctuary of the church with the president, Mrs. Edwin Ward presiding. After the opening hymn, Mrs. J. W. Manney led in prayer followed by the worship service, presented by Mrs. Ed Aslin.

Mrs. E. P. Young Jr., program chairman, gave an interesting program, using as her subject "City Missions." Mrs. William Routon, Mrs. W. Reinhardt and Mrs. Kinard Young read letters from members of Jobberman Settlement House, San Pedro, Calif., touching on the life and activities of the home.

The business session was concluded by the president and the following announcements made. World Banks are to be opened at the March meeting. Members were urged to bring their bank to the meeting. The annual conference of the WSCS will be held at Pine Bluff on March 28-30. Mrs. Jack Gardner was elected alternate delegate to attend the meeting.

Mrs. R. T. White read a complete list of those having received life membership in WSCS. Total members 68. Mrs. Gardner, secretary of missionary education and service outlined the program of World Missions Study to be held jointly with the Presbyterians Feb. 12-17. Mrs. Rufus Sorrells presented the "Missionary

DOROTHY DIX

Pregnant Girl Is Friendless

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I am 16 and the oldest of 11 children. The youngest is just a few months old. Mother gave her and the rest of us up. She and Daddy are divorcing. I am staying with my grandpa and grandmom. They give me a hard way to go, lonely, sorry and unhappy. I am pregnant by some one I never saw till it happened.

There is a nice boy who has asked me to marry him. He is 18, a church-goer, kind and has a good job. Should I marry him or try to get in a home for girls? If he loves me, maybe he'll take pity on me. Again, I might lose him. I have no one to talk to, no one to ask for love and help. I don't know what to do unless it would be to kill myself—L

Dear L: Yours is an age-old problem. Even an IBM machine might give up if it were kept of all the girls who became pregnant out of wedlock, to use a Victorian phrase. But for the most part, with the help of compassionate friends and social agencies, their derelictions pass unnoticed. The clarity of your letter stamps you a thinker. Go off by yourself and think this problem through. Take it as a challenge instead of a tragedy. Never lose sight of the truth that, as a test of character, this is a workable problem. Once you establish this fact in your mind, set about solving it. Suicide is no answer.

Tell the nice boy the truth. My guess is that he'll want to share your troubles. If he doesn't, seek out a minister. He'll help. I would, if I were near you. As next best, I'm airmailing you a list of social agencies in your city.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I am 22 years old and since home from the Service have dated several girls, some of whom I like very much. In each case after one or two dates, the girl refuses to date me again.

I have a fine personality, am a gentleman, and fairly handsome. I cannot understand where my fault lies. Any advice you give will be sincerely appreciated.

—Johnny

Dear Johnny: Make yourself more fun to be with. Be aware of what's going on in the world and have something to talk about. Most of all, forget about making an impression. Instead, show more interest in the girls, their hobbies and interests.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
Just how far is a daughter-in-law supposed to go? My in-laws hardly ever bother to call even when one of us is sick. Right after our new baby came, my husband's parents told him they were going to lose their home. We financed it through the Credit Union where he works. This costs us $80 to $80 a month. We've owed my mother a tidy sum

Coors Hunt Spreads in Colorado

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—A widening manhunt spread through broken country close to the mountains today for Adolf Coors III, a millionaire brewer and industrialist missing under mysterious circumstances.

Coors, 44, vanished on Tuesday from his blood-flecked automobile on a rural road southwest of Denver. Sheriff Art Wermuth said he may have been kidnapped.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation officially entered the case this morning. Scott Wernier, special agent in charge at Denver, said Washington headquarters issued permission for agents to take part in the search.

Wernier said the FBI is acting on the presumption Coors was the victim of foul play.

A brother, William Coors, said: "This is so incredible, but it's obvious that someone waylaid him."

Coors disappeared at a point only two miles north of his large country home near Morrison, a village at the mouth of Bear Creek Canyon.

Coors left his station wagon, locked or otherwise, so hastily that the ignition key was not turned off. The engine still was running when the car was found abandoned on a small wooden bridge spanning shallow Turkey Creek.

Blood smears were on the backrest of the front seat and on a section of bridge railing.

Fitzsimmons Loses His Best Chance

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, 41-year-old trainer, apparently has lost his best chance of saddling a fourth Kentucky Derby winner.

Progressing, a son of Bimelch from the Wheatley Stable, broke down Wednesday in the eighth race at Hialeah Park and was destroyed.

The Wheatley colt won the Pimlico Futurity last fall and looked impressive in a previous start at Hialeah.

Mr. Fitz' saddled derby winners in 1930's, 1935 and 1939.

Chamberlain Is Hurt, Warriors Almost Panic

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's not exactly panic in the camp of the Philadelphia Warriors. But with a three-game losing streak and Wilt Chamberlain not in the best of physical condition, their second-place lead over Syracuse in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn. has dwindled to 5½ games.

The losing streak started last Sunday in St. Louis, where Chamberlain had several teeth jammed into his lower jaw. He aggravated the injury in Detroit Tuesday as he set an NBA one-season scoring mark while the Warriors were dropping another.

Wednesday night, with a chance at the league's rebound and free throw marks, the circuit's No. 1 scorer was forced out of action with three minutes to play in the first quarter. He was hit in the mouth in a scramble for a rebound.

The New York Knicks lost no time taking advantage of the situation and pinned a 125-117 defeat on the Warriors. Wilt scored five points and grabbed two rebounds before leaving.

In the first game of the Madison Square Garden doubleheader, Larry Costello's jump shot at the buzzer gave the Syracuse Nats a 110-109 come-from-behind triumph over the Minneapolis Lakers.

The two division leaders strengthened their positions. The Boston Celtics, pacing the Warriors by 6½ games, rolled up their highest score of the year in downing the Detroit Pistons 153-121.

The St. Louis Hawks, with an 11½-game margin over the Pistons in the Western Division, handed the Cincinnati Royals their 4th straight setback. The score was 120-110.

Palmer and Little Golf Favorites

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Gene Littler, who generally makes a payday on his visits to Arizona, and Arnold Palmer, the year's top money winner, were the favorites today as the touring professionals teed off in the $22,500 Phoenix open tournament.

Littler, of Singing Hills, Calif., has won this tournament twice—in 1955 and 1958—and has finished in the money four of the past five years.

Palmer, the 30-year-old stylist from Ligonier, Pa., has pocketed $15,300 in prize money so far, with $12,000 coming for last week's victory in the rich Palm Springs desert classic.

Getting a big share of attention were Jerry Barber of Los Angeles who fired a 65 Wednesday to win the pro-am prelude and Bill Collins of Baltimore who was low pro with a 64. Jay Hebert, Sanford, Fla., and Bob Goaly, Crystal River, Fla., also had 65s.

The 72-hole tournament will be played over the tricky and troublesome 6,620-yard par 71 Phoenix Country Club course.

Accepting NIT Bids Proving Troublesome

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maybe those teams which jumped at the chance to get into the National Invitation Basketball Tournament would have been better off waiting until their regular season schedules were further along.

In the past week five teams, Detroit, Providence, Dayton, Memphis State and Villanova accepted bids to play in next month's NIT in New York.

Then the trouble started. Detroit lost to Toledo 61-61 Saturday. Providence was beaten by St. Bonaventure 90-89 in triple overtime Tuesday. And Wednesday night, Dayton was upset by Duquesne 79-66. Only Villanova and Memphis State have emerged unscathed since saying "okay" to the NIT.

In other major games, 11th-ranked Toledo beat Bowling Green 76-56; Kansas edged Kansas State 64-62 and knocked the Wildcats out of the Big Eight Conference lead; Marquette downed Louisville 78-70 and Maryland nipped Virginia 44-43.

In a Philadelphia doubleheader, Jack Egan scored 29 points in leading St. Joseph's (Pa.) to a 78-73 victory over St. Peter's of Jersey City, N. J. and Bill Kennedy scored six points in the final two minutes to lead Temple to a 68-60 triumph over Muhlenberg.

Elsewhere, the Feldman twins, Jon and Jeff, scored six of eight overtime points for George Washington to spark a 77-67 victory over Georgetown (D.C.). Al Butler connected for 38 points as his Niagara team walloped Syracuse 83-64; Washington State beat Montana 74-70 and Arizona defeated New Mexico 64-62.

In other news, New York University accepted an invitation to play in the NCAA tournament. The Violets, 11-3, will play as an alternate representative in a triple header at Madison Square Garden March 8. They will face the Atlantic Coast Conference champion for the right to advance to the next round at Charlotte, N.C. March 11-12 against the Mid-American Conference winner.

Black Hawks Can Thank the Rangers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If the Chicago Black Hawks get into the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs they can say "thank you" to the New York Rangers.

The Hawks have picked up 19 of a possible 22 points in their season series with the Rangers. Wednesday night, the Hawks defeated New York 5-1 for their ninth victory over the Blueshirts in 11 games. One ended in a tie. The triumph enabled Chicago take over sole possession of fourth place—the last qualifying position for the Stanley Cup competition.

In the only other game, Maurice (Rocket) Richard scored twice to lead the Montreal Canadiens to a 4-2 triumph over Toronto. The Canadiens thus increased their lead over the runner-up Maple Leafs to 21 points.

Red Kelly made his debut in a Toronto uniform. The veteran defenseman, acquired from Detroit Wednesday, played left wing and center.

Rodriguez in Knockout of Carl Hubbard

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

Luis Manuel Rodriguez, the best welterweight to come out of Cuba since Kid Gavilan, wants to fight Don Jordan for the title in his next ring appearance.

Rodriguez proved he is ready to the satisfaction of 3,105 ring-side spectators and a nationwide television audience Wednesday night when he knocked out previously unbeaten Carl Hubbard of Philadelphia.

The end came in 1:53 of the fourth round in a scheduled 10-rounder and surprised many Rodriguez followers who looked on him as a fancy boxer but short on knockout punches.

It was Rodriguez' 27th victory without a defeat. He had won 19 fights by decisions and only seven by knockouts before he faced the 148-pound Hubbard.

The Philadelphia had gone through 21 fights without a loss and scored 15 knockouts prior to his engagement with Rodriguez. Rodriguez floored Hubbard for the mandatory eighth count in the third. Quick left hooks rocked Hubbard in the fourth round and a sharp left to the jaw put him down for the count to finish a roaring battle.

Manager of the Washington Senators Believes His '60 Team One Others Will Fear

This is another of a series
By COOKIE LAVAGETTO
Manager, Washington Senators

ORINDA, Calif. (AP)—A year ago at this time, the Washington Senators weren't considered a threat in our league. However, the power we developed, plus some of the better pitching performances we got, made the other teams sit up and take notice. In 1960, I believe, they're going to fear us as well as notice us.

For one thing, we have more experience. Last spring, we had only three regulars who could boast having played 100 games in a big league season, Roy Sievers, Jim Lemon and Clint Courtney.

In 1960, we can add Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison to the list. For another, we have a bunch of kids coming along who are going to push some of the veterans.

I don't want to jump to conclusions as to who will start at what positions. Some of our kids might read this and see they had been eliminated before we start.

I do know that fellows like Sievers, Killebrew, Allison and Lemon are going to be in there. They showed they could bust the ball in '59. I want to get a good look at Dan Doubek, up from Chattanooga where he hit 25 home runs. They say he can play center. If he can, we'll move Allison to right.

Another fellow we are not undervaluing in the center field race is Lenny Green, who is fast and can hit on occasion. Faye Throneberry also will be in the running there.

Second and short were big trouble spots for us in '59. We opened

Weather Now Favorable at Squaw Valley

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — "They are living again!" declared Hans Urban, coach of the West German alpine team, as sunny weather returned to Squaw Valley and his skiers returned to the mountain slopes.

But fingers were crossed by officials as well as athletes hoping good weather would continue with the opening ceremony for the Games just one week away.

There was a storm out in the Pacific which forecast Hal Root said might reach the Northern California coast Friday, bringing another possibly heavy snow to Squaw Valley.

Two Russian women speed skaters, Klara Guseva and Lydia Skoblikova, charged there were pebbles imbedded in the speed skating rink.

Bill Kerth, director of the ice events, explained that the recent storms blew debris onto the rink. He said it must be planned down and a new surface put on. He hoped to have the new surface today.

The 60-meter ski jump was opened for the first time since the storm, but most of the jumpers waited impatiently for the 60-meter one to be ready for use.

"You don't get anything out of that one," Germany's Helmut Recknagel declared after taking the smaller jump.

Cross country skiers from the Nordic countries worked on a practice course at McKinney Creek.

with Ron Samford at short and Reno Bertoia at second. Ron developed a sore arm, since cured. Bertoia showed good power and speed in the spring but he tapered off. Both will be in the running for second along with Billy Conso and Ken Aspromonte.

Zorro Versailles, a 19-year-old, had the first call at shortstop. He is an exceptionally fine glove man. Backing up Sievers at first base, we have Julio Becquer, a flashy glove man and a valuable pinch hitter.

We have three catchers, Courtney, Hal Naragon and Steve Courcheck.

We should have better pitching. Camilo Pascual, our 17-game winner, and Pedro Ramos definitely will be starters. I'm anxious to look at Fred Bruckbauer, a bonus kid we signed out of the U. of Minnesota last June. He won 12 games in barely half a season in the Three-L league. Don Leo, a big right-hander we drafted from the Milwaukee organization, will have a shot at a starter's job.

We have three fine prospects in Jim Kaat, Ralph Limentani, and Jack Kralick. We also have such veterans as Russ Kemmerer, Truman Clevenger, Billy Fischer, Chuck Stobbs, Hal Woodeshick and Hal Griggs. We're hoping that Dick Hyde, a bullpen ace in '58, will regain his old form.

Moyer Makes Quick Work of DeMarco

BOSTON (AP) — In a bloody span of four minutes, Denny Moyer has enhanced his impressive record while leaving lonely ex-champion Tony DeMarco with six stitches and a handful of fistic memories.

Moyer, a 20-year-old Portland, Ore., boxer ranked sixth among welterweight challengers, gained a technical knockout over DeMarco at 1:10 of the second round Wednesday night.

Ten seconds after the bout began, the contestants accidentally butted heads. The collision opened a deep gash at the hairline on DeMarco's forehead and a small cut at the corner of Moyer's left eye.

When Referee Eddie Curley stopped the action, pouring blood had blinded DeMarco.

Moyer, 149½, who won his 23rd in 24 pro starts, explained: "It's a funny thing, you go in nice and relaxed, not nervous at all. But you bump heads and you don't feel a thing."

"I wasn't hurt," said the discouraged, 29-year-old DeMarco, who weighed 148½. "I just couldn't see. By the time he stopped it, I couldn't see out of either eye."

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

Shila are living reality, owing in considerable measure to the peace loving efforts of India."

"Our sympathy always has been on the side of countries like Cuba, which is actively defending its national and economic independence," he said.

"The Soviet Union is always ready to render disinterested support for those countries struggling against age-old economic backwardness." This declaration drew loud applause.

"Some highly developed countries attained high economic standards by oppression of countries in Asia and Latin America. It would only be fair if these Western countries returned to their former colonial possessions at least part of their former plunder," he said.

"We, without any surplus capital, are rendering and where it is needed. We want to see the countries receiving this aid stand on their own feet in producing not only consumer but capital goods as well."

The turnout for Khrushchev was friendly but showed none of the wild enthusiasm shown for Eisenhower. Many cheered, only a few cheered, and some watched silently as Khrushchev drove by to the presidential palace with Prime Minister Nehru and President Rajendra Prasad.

The Eisenhower motorcade took 2½ hours to travel the 11-mile route because of the crowds; Khrushchev did it in about an hour.

A major reason for the smaller crowds today may have been tighter security controls, ordered to prevent the motorcade from being blocked even once. And Khrushchev is paying a return visit to India, having been here four years ago.

Storm Seems Diminishing in Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter's most severe snowstorm diminished in most of the Midwest today but the crippling effects were felt in many areas.

The major job, clearing streets and highways of huge drifts, was slowed in many sections. Strong northerly winds swept the snow back onto highways as fast as they were cleared.

More heavy snow also continued during the night in eastern upper and extreme northern Lower Michigan as the storm center moved northeastward headed into Canada. An additional covering of 4 to 8 inches was in prospect.

The blizzard-like storms, sweeping out of the Great Plains Tuesday, were the worst in some Midwest areas in many years. Many communities were isolated, hundreds of motorists were stranded and scores of schools were closed. Business and industry slowed due to absenteeism. Many industrial plants in Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa shut down.

Colder weather swept into the snow-blanketed regions and dipped as far south as the Gulf Coast. It was below zero in northern Midwest sections.

The violent weather which raked the Pacific coastal areas, the Southwest, South and Midwest was blamed for at least 32 deaths. Nearly half of them were caused by heart attacks suffered while shoveling the heavy wet snow.

The storm dumped about 18 inches of snow on Milwaukee, with 16.7 inches in a 24-hour period, which the Weather Bureau said was the second largest snow fall on record for the Wisconsin metropolis. Seven deaths were called a successful 900-mile test flight.

The test, made hours after Eisenhower had returned to Washington, was the sixth successful flight test of the current Polaris series. The missile is designed for firing from submarines either on the surface or under water.

Eisenhower saw no launchings during his visit, but there was a routine firing of a Matador guided missile at another section of the base while he was looking at stationary weapons.

Disc Spinner Make Cash Listening

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former Cleveland disc jockey, fired from his $20,000-a-year job on charges of accepting payola, testified today he collected an extra $12,000 in two years as listening fees from record companies.

Wesley Hopkins told the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee that he got the $12,000 for listening to records of the firms paying him and making sure they were "not lost in the shuffle."

The 33-year-old former disc jockey insisted, however, that the money was not payola—a trade term for undercover payments to plug records.

Hopkins, who said he doesn't have a job now, was the second former Cleveland disc jockey to appear before the subcommittee investigating payola.

A former colleague, Joseph Finian, testified Tuesday that he received more than $15,000 in 1958-59 as adviser and consultant to record companies while earning a $10,000-a-year salary.

Both Finian and Hopkins were fired from Cleveland station KYW last December on allegations they had accepted payola. Both denied it.

Hopkins denied in his testimony today that he ever played a record on his KYW show just because he received money from the record's producer.

Under questioning, Hopkins said he severed all connections with the record firms in November at the demand of Westinghouse Broadcasting Co., which operates KYW.

She Knew How to Keep Husband

DETROIT (AP) — When 33-year-old Minnie Gilland decided her neighbor was trying to "switch" away her husband, she said she knew just what to do about it.

Mrs. Gilland told Judge Gerald Groat she put a tar-and-feather hex sign on the home of Mary Donaldson, 75.

Mrs. Donaldson denied she was trying to steal David Gilland, 65, from Mrs. Gilland. She estimated it would cost $75 to repaint the tarred area.

Judge Groat convicted Mrs. Gilland of destruction of property and released her pending sentence Feb. 24.

"I had to do something," Mrs. Gilland said. "After I had done it I felt better."

attributed to the storm. Many Iowa, southwestern Wisconsin and northwestern Illinois communities were snowbound, with 10-foot drifts and foot-high snowfalls. Hardest hit cities included Rockford, Ill., with 118,000 residents; Peoria, Ill., with 25,000 population and Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis.

Hundreds of motorists were stranded in Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

East of the storm belt, showers splattered areas from eastern New York southward into South Carolina. In the West, light snow fell in sections of the northern Rockies and the high plains, while showers sprinkled sections in the far Southwest.

Steak, Roast Best Buys on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sirloin steak and chuck roast—the high and low notes on beef's price scale—are being featured in many supermarket and neighborhood grocery meat counters this week.

Sirloins, plus porter house and round steaks, are the top items in stores scattered from the East through the South, Midwest and Far West, while chuck roast is offered in the East.

Rib roast also is frequently offered with price cuts ranging from 6 to 10 cents a pound from a week ago. Pork chops also are down, prices running from 2 to 20 cents under last week. Leg of lamb is a bargain at some Eastern stores but it's marked up 2 to 10 cents a pound in other areas.

Eggs remain on the bargain list with slight, mixed changes in scattered areas.

Shoppers seeking bargains among processed foods should look for canned corn and frozen spinach or brussels sprouts.

Best buys among fresh vegetables are cabbage, carrots, escarole, small to medium yellow onions, parsley, potatoes, sweet potatoes, rutabaga, turnips, spinach and radishes. The last-named are down sharply this week.

Good buys include beets, broccoli, Florida celery, Chinese cabbage, endive and cauliflower. More expensive are snap beans, cucumbers, eggplant, lettuce (although lower than last week), green peas, peppers, tomatoes and California celery.

Outstanding fresh fruit bargains are oranges, lemons, grapefruit, Eastern apples and honeydew melons from Chile. Avocados and pears are also good.

North of the Arkansas river, and especially in the northeast corner of the state, archeologists have made rich discoveries of "effigy" vessels, jugs, pots and tobacco pipes made in realistic or conventionalized likeness of humans and animals.

No Story If Bullets of Pistol Had Fired

By BOB HARING
Associated Press Staff Writer

"I saw him pointing the pistol at my head. I heard it snap three, four times. Then I went for my gun."

Those words would never have been uttered by Lincoln Marshall Lee Roberts if some bullets in a .22 caliber pistol had fired last week.

It began when Roberts was called to a disturbance near Prairie Grove one midnight. He found two Negroes standing by their car, which had left the highway and was in a field.

Roberts put the men in the car to take them to Fayetteville.

"All of a sudden I heard a shot," he said. "When I turned around the gun was pointed at my head."

Roberts couldn't get to his own pistol so he rolled out of the car onto the highway.

The two men were scuffling in the back seat, Roberts said. "I couldn't see who had the gun. I stood there until I could see, then I stepped to the window and said 'Give me that gun.' He did."

Roberts said the pistol changed hands in the scuffling. He found one of the Negroes, James W. Kinney, 77, had been wounded in the shoulder.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Only 43 persons cast ballots against a one million dollar industrial bond issue here.

A total of 2,435 persons voted for the bond issue in an election yesterday.

The bonds will finance a building for a new major industry, to employ about 600 persons. The company's name has not been announced.

Bonds will be repaid from building rentals with a five-mill tax levy authorized only in the event the industry defaults.

Robertson of Alma. That came at 8 p.m. on Feb. 2.

But, some day there might be an emergency. A doctor would be needed. And Dr. Kirksey, who is maintaining his general practice, might deliver No. 4,267.

When Miss Barbara Ann Staggs of Stephens was married, the members of her family felt right at home with the minister.

And no wonder. The Rev. Fred H. Ward, a former Stephens resident and Baptist minister who now lives in retirement in Camden, not only married Miss Staggs to Charles Grimes.

He married Barbara's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Staggs on Nov. 20, 1937, her only brother, Billy, to Josephine Reid Sept. 11, 1950, and her only sister, Wilma, to Walter Clark Aug. 17, 1950.

Crowd Pleasing Menu—Golden Crisped Chicken Plus

In these servantless days feeding a crowd can be a problem unless the menu is simple. Here is one that feeds twelve with the greatest of ease.

Star of this party menu is the Golden Crisped Chicken, a crunchy-coated treat that has a greaseless "fried chicken" look and taste. Broiler-fryer pieces, dipped in evaporated milk, are rolled in corn flake crumbs seasoned with Accent to highlight their sweet succulence and emphasize the toasted richness of the crumbs. Then this no watch, no turn, no cover dish is baked on a shallow pan lined with heavy-duty aluminum foil.

Chicken, the National Broiler Council points out, is high in nutritive value and lower in calories than most other meats. In year round supply, it can be adapted to many different and delectable dishes, and is popular with everyone.

With the chicken, serve skinned potatoes. Both can be prepared in advance and reheated just before serving. The only last-minute tasks are making the salad and heating the French bread in aluminum foil in the oven. Add your favorite dessert, or ice cream, and your own smiling presence.

Golden Crisped Chicken

3 broiler-fryer chickens, cut in serving pieces
2 1/2 cups packaged corn flake crumbs
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon Accent
Aluminum foil
1 cup evaporated milk

Combine corn flake crumbs with Accent, salt and pepper in pie plate or shallow baking dish. Line 2 shallow baking sheets or pans with aluminum foil. Dip chicken pieces in evaporated milk then roll immediately in seasoned corn flake crumbs. Place chicken pieces, skin side up, in foil-lined pan; do not crowd. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 1 1/2 hours, or until tender. At the end of one hour, exchange place of pans on the shelves; continue to bake. No need to cover or turn chicken while cooking. Yield: 12 servings.

CC Deplores Senseless Bombing Act

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The President of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce today labeled the bombing of a Negro pupil's home "a senseless act," but viewed it as a minor event.

W. F. Rector said an explosion last night at the home of Carlotta Walls, one of the five Negroes enrolled at Little Rock Central High School, had been "blown up all out of proportion by the press over the entire nation."

"This is a minor incident and we have been kicked in the teeth again," Rector told a newsman. "When the Labor Day bombings occurred last September, we were working on getting a 30-million dollar industry for Little Rock. Of course, those bombings wiped it out."

Rector referred to three dynamite bombings on the night of Sept. 7. The integration-linked blasts caused heavy damage to the Little Rock School Board building, the business office of Mayor Werner Knoop, and a station wagon of Fire Chief Gannalley.

Five men were arrested in the bombings and one pleaded guilty. Three others were tried and got three-year prison terms while the fifth man has not gone to trial.

Rector said "we are working on nine good prospects for industries to locate here" at present, "and something like this has to happen."

School Board President Everett Tucker Jr. and Supl. Terrel Powell said only that the Walls bombing was a matter for the police.

Amis Guthridge, segregationist leader and spokesman for the Capital Citizens Council, said he was surprised to hear of the bombing. He said he learned of it in broadcasts.

"I was certainly surprised because it's been so calm and quiet," he said.

Dr. Macdonald G. Taylor, president of the American segregationist Citizens Council, also said he was surprised to hear of the bombing. He had no other comment.

Says West May Sign Peace Treaty

BERLIN (AP)—East German Premier Otto Grotewohl said today he has heard Western governments may sign a World War II peace treaty with West Germany while those governments who are ready for it will sign a peace treaty with East Germany.

"Since both treaties would have to solve the same problems, they would also have the same basic contents and would lead to the same results," Grotewohl told his Parliament.

Voodoo Tickets Going

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—Tickets for Saturday night's "voodoo Valentine Dance" at the Princeton University campus were moving slowly until the student or organization sponsoring it came up with a new promotional idea.

The price of a ticket is still $4.75, but for an additional 25 cents the sponsors will supply a date.

The girls—150 of them—are from Centenary College, Hackettstown.

Farm Worker Fatally Shot at Truman

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP)—A 50-year-old farm worker was wounded fatally by a shotgun blast yesterday in the climax of an argument over how to free a truck from mud.

The victim was Walter Jackson Guffey. He was shot while working on the farm of William Stanford Chapman, 65, near Trumann.

Police held Chapman on an open charge.

Sheriff C. T. Sullivan gave this account: Guffey, Chapman and five other men had been cutting wood. Guffey and Chapman argued over how to get a truck unstuck. Chapman got a shotgun and Guffey picked up an ax and ran behind a farm building.

Chapman sat on a log and waited until Guffey came to help the other men push the truck. More words were exchanged and a shot was fired.

The other men said they did not see the shooting but that Guffey, fatally wounded, fell on Chapman.

Chapman told the sheriff that Guffey had threatened to kill him with the ax.

A coroner's ruling of homicide was returned.

It was Poinsett County's second shooting.

Says German Occupation to Continue

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer declared today Berlin must remain under four-power occupation until German unity is achieved. He spoke before the lower house of Parliament, which applauded wildly.

By their applause and supporting statements, West German lawmakers showed solid backing for this summation of the position Bonn is taking in Western deliberations for the May 16 summit meeting. There was no formal vote.

The 64-year-old West German leader said that in talks with President Eisenhower in Washington next month he intends to present the unanimous German view once again.

Adenauer insisted no interim settlement of the Berlin question is possible unless it affirms the rights of U. S. British and French troops in West Berlin and sets up a program aimed at unifying Germany through free elections.

fatal shooting in the past few days. Phillip Henley Henson, 84, was found shot to death in his rural store near Waldenburg Sunday. No arrest has been made in that case.

It was Poinsett County's second shooting.

Man Wanted by Authorities for 27 Years Is Picked Up in Birmingham, Alabama

By TOM DYCARD

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—"I guess I always knew this day was coming, but I prayed every night that it wouldn't."

Harry Eugene Evans, 50, wanted by authorities for 27 years for failing to return to prison from a 10-day parole, sat in jail in Birmingham.

Police picked him up Tuesday at his house—where his wife and three children, his friends, and his employer knew him as Harry Eugene Hill, a respected, well-liked trucking company stock foreman.

Their warrant revealed his secret and identified him as Evans, a convicted bank robber.

"I've had a funny feeling ever since December," he said.

On Dec. 19 Evans was arrested at Philadelphia and fingerprinted. He was on his way out of town after watching Alabama and Penn State play in the Liberty Bowl football game.

"It wasn't a serious accident, but a patrol car pulled in over, and they took me in and fingerprinted me. I started worrying then."

His wife of 19 years, who said she knew nothing of her husband's life, said the boy's father found the body.

Eight Boys, Father Pick Up Brother

CHICAGO (AP)—Eight young boys wearing baseball caps went with their father, Dr. Walter T. Hackett, to Resurrection Hospital Tuesday to pick up their mother and their new brother.

Hackett's wife, Mercedes, 34, gave birth to her ninth son, Paul Andrew, on Feb. 4, giving the couple enough sons for a baseball team. He weighed 7 pounds 13½ ounces at birth. The other boys range in age from 12 to 1½.

Dr. Hackett is a staff member Resurrection Hospital. The family lives in suburban Park Ridge.

Writes President Threatening Note

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Clyde D. Sherk of nearby Linglestown has been charged with threatening the life of President Eisenhower in a letter.

Sherk, 23, is held in lieu of $15,000 bond pending federal court action.

U.S. Commissioner Charles J. Ware said Tuesday Sherk was arrested Feb. 4. Sherk waived hearing the following day on a charge he "willfully deposited for conveyance in the mails a threat to take the life of the President of the United States," Ware said.

Dream Of A Dessert For Dieters

Isn't it true that, when you're on a diet, food takes on added importance? You find yourself dreaming of all sorts of confections not at all appropriate for conscientious weight-watchers.

Today many of those dreams can come true. With the help of the scientifically developed non-calorie sweetener, Sucaryl, unnecessary calories can be subtracted from your favorite sweets without changing their goodness one little bit.

For example, the luscious, rich-tasting chocolate parfaits, shown here, contain relatively few calories and can be enjoyed by dieters with a clear conscience. Alternate layers of pudding (one of the low-calorie, sugar-free pudding mixes) with creamy rich Chocolate-Mint Sauce, a recipe developed especially for dieters. Sweetened with Sucaryl, this heavenly-tasting sauce contains less than half the calories found in its sugar-sweetened counterpart. It's wonderful, too, as a low-calorie dress-up for plain cake or ice cream.

Chocolate-Mint Sauce (Low-Calorie)

3 squares unsweetened chocolate 1/4 teaspoon salt
1 quart skim milk 1/4 cup flour
3 tablespoons Sucaryl solution 1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon peppermint flavoring

Heat chocolate and milk in top of double boiler. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary beater. Add Sucaryl and salt. Add a little of the milk to the flour to make a smooth paste; return to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove from heat; add butter and peppermint flavoring. Use to dress up pudding, cake or ice cream.

Makes 9 1/2-cup servings. Each serving contains 108 Calories, 4.5 grams protein; 6.5 grams fat; 10.5 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 237 Calories.

President to Canaveral on Inspection

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — President Eisenhower came here today for a personal inspection tour of this test center for the missiles figuring so importantly in controversy over U.S. defenses.

The President planned a stay of three or four hours before returning to the capital.

Eisenhower's jet airplane touched down here at 10:26 a.m. EST, after taking off from Andrews Air Force Base, near Washington, at 8:30 a.m. Eisenhower boarded the plane after a helicopter flight to Andrews from his farm near Gettysburg, Penna., where he spent Tuesday night.

The President was accompanied here by Secretary of Defense Thomas Gates Jr., Deputy Secretary James Douglas, his son, Maj. John Eisenhower, and a group of White House aides.

The President was greeted by Air Force Maj. Gen. Donald N. Yates, commander of the test center, and Brig. Gen. William Rogers, vice commander.

The President was whisked in an Air Force automobile to the Cape Canaveral central control building for a classified briefing on missile activities and progress here.

The hour-long briefing was to supplement information sent to him daily. This information has helped formulate the administration stand that the United States is capable of deterring any enemy from attacking, and that the missile gap with Russia is not as serious as some critics are contending.

An extensive tour of the Cape's 15,000 acres, visits to the gantries, the blackhouses, the hangars, and launching sites under construction was planned for the President.

Barring a last-minute change of plans, Eisenhower will see no actual launching of missiles. But he is expected to get a look at a variety of them — including the mighty intercontinental types, Atlas and Titan.

The President is making the visit at the height of the contro-

Sent Important Papers to London

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Igor Kurchatov, top Soviet atomic scientist, sent important research papers to London just before his death last week.

Kurchatov sent the papers by ordinary mail to Capt. Ian Maxwell, chairman of a British firm of scientific publishers. Government scientists now are translating them.

The papers apparently gave details of recent work to harness the power of the hydrogen bomb for civilian purposes, Maxwell said.

He emphasized that Kurchatov's action involved no breach of Soviet secrecy.

Kurchatov, 58, who directed the team that developed the first Soviet atomic bomb and headed the Soviet Institute of Atomic Energy, died unexpectedly Sunday of heart trouble.

Promotions Await Probe of Jury

NOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge P. B. Doherty today directed city officials not to make any promotions or personnel changes in the Not Springs Police Department until a current investigation is completed.

Doherty acted at the request of the Law Enforcement Committee of the Garland County Grand Jury.

Police Lt. Joe Campbell was fired last Saturday at Doherty's direction.

Campbell has said he will appeal to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Subtle Civil Rights Change in the South

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—A subtle change is occurring in the nation including the South—on civil rights.

It seems taken for granted now that this year an effort, probably a successful one, will be made to pass a civil rights bill in Congress.

Just a few years ago—before the Supreme Court outlawed public school segregation in 1954—this would have been unthinkable.

At the most the House would have passed something, knowing well it would be strangled in the Senate by Southern filibuster or just lack of action.

This was how it had been since way back in the 19th century when the last batch of civil rights legislation was approved.

What happened to make it possible for Congress to pass in 1957 the first civil rights bill in 62 years and now seem on the verge of passing another?

If there is any single answer it is probably that the Supreme Court decision broke the dam.

In the first place, the court's action made Congress self-conscious. It did what Congress wouldn't do. It took action on civil rights.

The court had laid the groundwork for the public school decision with a whole series of opinions, going back into the 1940s, to break down racial segregation.

The protest from the South against the public school decision focused the attention of the whole country on this problem in a way it could not ignore.

The violence at Little Rock—over the admittance of Negro children to a school—shocked the country into further examination.

But by hit throughout the South the wall against the court's decision began to crumble. Negroes brought to the front another problem of equal importance: their difficulty in being allowed to vote.

The question of outlawing the poll tax which had been a furious rallying point for Southerners—bringing a filibuster from them four times in the 1940s—began to seem just a minor episode against the other problems.

That probably explains best why an anti-poll tax amendment to the Constitution passed the Senate last week with hardly a flurry. There was no thought of filibuster. It was even a Southerner who sponsored the amendment.

With the nation made self-conscious about Negroes' civil rights, there was no trouble passing the civil rights bill of 1957.

There was no filibuster. The Southerners apparently knew they couldn't win and it was a mild civil rights bill.

If this year the Eisenhower administration and Northern Democrats get together on another moderate civil rights bill, the Southerners once again will probably decide not to filibuster. If it's real tough, they might.

The pattern seems to be taking this shape. Year after year there will be a steady push, inside and outside Congress, to give the Negroes of the South more civil rights protection. Opposition in the South, against the pressure of national opinion, will melt slowly.

From the way it's going, this will take time. Population shifts, of course, are a factor in inducing Northern members of Congress to make more effort for civil rights legislation.

The Negro vote in the North is getting more important, liberal sentiment on the civil rights issue is increasing, more organizations, including organized labor, are demanding action.

But if it hadn't been for the court's decision in 1954, it is hard to believe there would be any more progress on civil rights now than there was in the 1940s or, for that matter, in the 1920s, when there wasn't any.

Another Disc Jockey Called by Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — House payola probers called a second former disc jockey today after hearing a colleague tell of receiving $15,500 in side payments over a two-year period.

Joseph Finan, who said he received the money as a consultant, and Wesley Hopkins, today's new witness, both spun records for Cleveland's radio-TV station KYW until they were fired last Dec. 3.

Hopkins has denied that he took payola—under-the-table payments or gifts for promoting records or products. He was called before the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee, which is looking into payola on the ground such payments fool the public as to a record's worth or popularity.

Finan, 32, said he had received $15,500 from 15 record firms in 1958-59 for his opinions on which records would be hits and which would flop.

In addition to that money, he said, there was his annual salary from KYW of up to $40,000 and almost $2,000 a year additional for presiding at record hops for teenagers in small towns around Cleveland.

He was elevated to the purple by the late Pope Pius XII in 1953.

His death reduces the ranks of the College of Cardinals to 78.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII and the Vatican were saddened today by the news of the death of Alojzije Cardinal Stepinac.

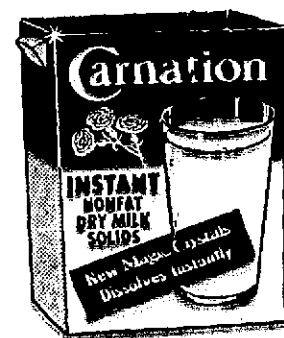

The Yugoslav prelate was the only member of the College of Cardinals who was never able to come to the Vatican to receive the red hat symbol of his high rank.

He was elevated to the purple by the late Pope Pius XII in 1953.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Within Reach—Pie In The Sky

Pie on the breakfast table could be the pie-in-the-sky answer to what teen-age Jill and Jack should have for breakfast... a fact recognized by the thoughtful nutritionist. She advises parents who want their teens to eat a good breakfast: Let the unusual spark the menu way. If Jack's fancy reaches for berry pie and Jill's for coconut cream, these teens are not so far-fetched. For they are eating foods they need each day, . . . fruit or milk and eggs plus cereal products.

To some, cheese or sliced tomatoes may seem to be pie-in-the-sky breakfast fare. But a marketing research organization reports that ten percent of all natural cheese eaten is served at breakfast; that more different foods are served at breakfast than at any other meal.

If you are having trouble getting your teens to eat breakfast, call a halt to conformity. Dazzle your family at the breakfast table. Let them enjoy eggs in banana cream pie, in egg nog, or in waffles. French toast? Or maybe a complete change to a hamburger breakfast is due. If you can't find a complete change to a hamburger breakfast in your house, why not switch to a cluster of grapes or a baked apple? Let dinner provide the vitamin C-rich fare: broccoli, deep-green leafy vegetables, melon, or berries.

Depart from the too-tried, no-longer-true-to-you fare that causes teens to rebel. Charm them by making their pie-in-the-sky choices within reach for family meals when their choices, like pie, furnish needed nutrients.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

CHAPTER XXVIII

"Why, Lottie," I exclaimed, "I thought you liked Midam Janeway. I thought you were such close friends."

She made an answer that I did not expect. It was a thing she had never said before. "Remember," she said, "how you and I took the kitchen clock apart?"

"I guess we wanted to find out what made it tick."

Lottie was very serious. "From the first minute I saw her," she said, "I've wanted to know what makes Madam tick."

"Have you found out?"

"Not yet," she answered, "but I've had a couple of peeks inside her case. There are lots and lots of wheels and sprockets and pinions. One of these fine days I'm going to find her mainspring."

"But," I repeated, "I thought you liked her."

"I do," she said. "But I do not think women are strictly ethical. It wasn't a woman that invented ethics. It was a rapscallion of a man. I'm going to ask you a question. Not a fact question."

"A hypothetical question?"

"Oh," she said, big-eyed, "aren't you just wonderful! Hypothetical! Here it is: Suppose some body dropped something, and when they were gone you picked it up. And suppose it was a strange kind of a thing that made you break out in a rash of wanting to know what it was. Now, hypothetically, would you return it to the owner and simply strangle your curiosity or would you try to— to decipher it?"

"Decipher?"

"Yes"—she nodded vigorously—"like a puzzle."

"Why," said I—speciously I'm afraid—"if it would help you solve a moral problem, examining the thing could violate no obligation."

"That," she said, extracting a bit of taffy from a back tooth, "is a slippery answer. But before you go all noble and change your mind, here it is."

She handed me a visiting card, and the name on the card was Madam Janeway's. What Lottie wanted me to see was on the back of the bit of cardstock. It was made up of lines and letters and figures like this:

O: R4x45; L2x73; R2x35; L:

"I drove Madam downtown to shop this morning in our sleigh, and she must have dropped it out of her reticule when she took out her handkerchief. I found it on the floor after she was gone."

It reminded me of something—something to do with my father and Uncle Lander. It had happened in their office, and Uncle Lander, who knelt in front of the safe, said ruefully, "I've forgotten the darn combination." And her father said, "You always do, Lander. Here I'll write it down for you once more, but, for goodness sake, don't lose it again." He scribbled on a card and handed it to me to give Uncle Lander. And it was made up of numbers and letters and x's in much the same way as the one I now held.

"If," I said, "this is what I think it is, it may even be that ethics requires me to look into it."

"She ran for her coat and fur cap," he said, "and she arrived at Saunders' home."

and we went out of the house into the snow and plowed our way downtown. It was not a long walk, but we were puffing and blowing by the time we got to the building where my office was located. I knelt before the safe the combination of which she had apparently neglected to supply me with.

My deduction of memory or reasoning has been correct. The figures had indeed been the combination to this safe. I turned the handle and swung open the heavy door. Lottie squealed. I almost squealed myself. For there, in the safe supposed to be mine, in an office that definitely was mine, was stacked more money than I ever had seen in my life, carefully arranged in packets. I fingered them hastily and faced Lottie, who stared goggle-eyed.

"How much?" she asked breathlessly.

"About," I said, equally breathlessly, "a half a million dollars."

Here was the reason someone had been entering my office in my absence — to put money in this safe! And here was the reason why Madam Janeway had not furnished me with the combination. Here in my office, in a safe, which everybody but Madam and me thought was my property, was secreted an enormous sum of money.

"I think," Lottie said faintly, "it would be a stupid idea for me to return that card with the combination on it to Madam Janeway or to let her know that you or I had seen it."

"It could," I agreed, "be very unwise indeed."

"Shut the safe door," Lottie said. "It frightens me to look at so much money."

I closed the door and twisted the knob. Lottie walked around the desk and took possession of my chair as if it were her right. She was curf and peremptory. "Memorize the combination," she said firmly, "and destroy the card."

My memory is excellent. I committed it to the letters and figures that made up the combination, and then tore the card to small bits and put them in my coat pocket.

"Maybe," Lottie said, looking very wise, "Madam has got 'attorney' mixed up with 'cat's-paw'."

"How could I be a cat's-paw? What for?"

"Just for instance," Lottie asked, "what did you just do for Madam in Albany?"

Sociolite to Trial

MEMPHIS (AP)—The trial of socialite J. Tunkle Saunders resumes today with the state attempting to show that a "playful" shot with no intent to harm actually was an attempt to murder.

The trial opened Monday with attorney Vance Alexander Jr., 43, testifying he was wounded only slightly when Saunders fired a shotgun from his window.

He quoted Saunders as saying later that the shooting was a foolish prank. It occurred Jan. 12, 1959, shortly after Alexander said he arrived at Saunders' home.

Fate of GOP Farm Effort Up to Benson

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fate of a Republican effort to deposit the farm problem on the Democratic Congress doorstep appeared today to rest with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

Benson, long a target of Democratic criticism, testifies next week on the newest farm proposals made Tuesday by President Eisenhower.

"The President referred the critical wheat surplus to Congress with the word that he would approve 'any constructive solution' it develops. Although he laid down some guidelines, Republican Senate and House leaders said this statement put the responsibility squarely on Congress.

Benson will testify Feb. 19 before the House Agriculture Committee. Some Republicans say they fear he might then slam the door they contend Eisenhower left open.

In the past, Benson has been dedicated to lowering price supports and relaxing governmental controls over farmers.

Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) was one of those saying Benson might sound a discordant note to the conciliatory tone of Eisenhower's message.

If Benson balks, some Republicans say the Democratic Congress may respond with no legislation, on the grounds that anything it passes would be vetoed. Democrats then would feel free to blame the Republicans in the election campaign.

If Benson echoes Eisenhower's stand, Republicans think the Democrats will find it almost impossible to agree among themselves.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) took note of a possible Benson dissent to a program he said had been drafted "under the pressure of desperate Republican farm congressmen and a howled and besieged vice president."

Aiken credited Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who appears likely to be the Republican pres-

Plans Attack on Candidate Kennedy

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Dr. Ramsey Pollard, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, says identical nominees, with helping to soften the tone of a message previously drawn in stiffer language.

Humphrey, a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, said Eisenhower's new proposals represented the administration's "deathbed abandonment of its low-price, no-control free-market farm policy."

he will not stand by and keep his mouth shut when a man in control of the Roman Catholic Church runs for presidency of the United States."

Pollard, head of the 1,200,000-member convention which is the second largest Protestant group in the United States, addressed the Mississippi Baptist Evangelical Conference Tuesday.

He did not amplify his statement about the Catholic presidential candidate, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), a Catholic, is an announced candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Attacking Roman Catholic Church policies in countries dominated by Catholics, Pollard said he has seen Protestant churches where the Roman Catholic Church is dominant, he added.

Missing Girl Sought

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—All-thorities today prepared to drain a big pond in their search for Sandra Valade, 16, missing for nine days and feared slain. The pond leads into a canal where several items of the girl's clothes have been found. Miss Valade was last seen when she alighted from a bus for a five-mile walk to her home at 9:45 p.m. Feb. 1.

recently visited Spain.

"I will never believe what the Pope of Rome says about God will and brotherhood until I see some evidence of it in countries where the Roman Catholic Church is dominant," he added.
